The second book in the series features Devlin St. Just, the duke's oldest, but illegitimat. The Soldier (Duke's Obsession, #2; Windham, #2) by Grace ...

The Soldier is the sequel to Grace Burrowes' The Heir. This second book is more tightly written but to me suffers from too much of a modern day concern with post traumatic stress syndrome. I confess I like my heroes to be more self assured and manly. St. Just has survived the Napoleonic wars and returned to his family and homeland.

2.5 stars Let me say up front that I think this series has potential, and I'm planning to give the next book (The Soldier (Duke's Obsession, #2)) a shot.The dialogue was witty, and the story had some definitely decent moments. However, there were several things about The Heir that got on my nerves. First, the idiot heroine.

The Heir (Duke's Obsession, #1; Windham, #1) by Grace Burrowes

Lots of Class Differences in The Heir (Duke-Housekeeper) and The Soldier(A New Lord who was born a bastard-Pastry Chef/Baker).
